Three Ways to Eat With Us

RESIDENTIAL DINING
Local Point and The 8 at McMahon are the mealtime home-bases for residents. The two locations are both great places to eat, study or hang out.

CAFES & MARKETS
There is no shortage of options on campus for students on the move before, between or after classes. Coffee, grab-and-go, prepared food and groceries!

FOOD TRUCKS
The ultimate in convenience, the food trucks in Red Square give students the option of grabbing a bite on the run.

AMAZING FACTS

Our campus cafes are spaced so you’re never more than 2 minutes from a cup of coffee.

Motosurf serves over 10,000 customers per month during the school year.

The average customer spends $5.31 per visit to the District Market, compared to $9.90 nationally.

250 Mile Diet
More than half of the food we serve is produced within 250 miles of campus.

The average yearly dining plan for UW campus residents is the lowest in the state.

UW Dining co-developed the first compostable soft drink cup, in partnership with Coca-Cola.
